

I am opposing the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law.
When I want to speak to my bank, credit card company, or any other entity we deal with, I will call them.
This defeats the whole purpose of the Telephone Privacy Law.
Can't you people leave well enough alone?!